BOOK STORES.

A STANDARD HISTORY BY

GEN. LEE.

A Work of National and Permanent Value.

MEMOIRS OF THE WAR,

By Gen. Henry Lee.

("LIGHT HORSE HARRY")

Thoroughly Revised and Annotated, BY GEN. ROBERT E. LEE,

WHO HAS ADDED A FULL BIOGRAPHY OF HIS FATHER.

1 vol. octavo, 640 pages, with new Steel Portraits of Gen Henry Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and G. R. Nathanial Greene; beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion crossing the Pedee," and the "Surrender of Cornwallis." Siege of the Siege of Charleston, N. C.; the siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's residence.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States, is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the author, and embellished by elegant Engravings, and original Maps never before published, is a volume of the highest value to every intelligent person.

This history has been for a long time out of print, and because of its accuracy as a history of that interesting period—and there was no work to supply its place, it was much sought for and a new edition demanded.

It is seldom that a historical work by a distinguished author has the advantage of a revision by so distinguished a son, and both of them great military leaders in the same section of the country.

Gen. Lee receives A LARGE COPYRIGHT UPON EVERY COPY OF THE BOOK SOLD. Sold only by subscription.

PRICE:—Handsomely bound in Cloth, $4 00.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1869.

"FOR THE RELIEF OF THE PEOPLE."

So many and so various are the plans devised for "the relief of the people," and so unsuccessful have most of these plans heretofore proved, that it would seem to argue a good deal of temerity in any one to come forward with a new plan for the accomplishment of so desirable an object, yet, believing that the object can be accomplished, and consequently, having devoted deep and serious thought to the subject, we think we have hit upon a plan, which, if adopted by our Legislature, would greatly tend to lighten the burdens of the people and afford the so much needed relief. And this is our plan:

Let the Legislature pass an act authorizing the issue of State coupon bonds of the denominations of twenty five, fifty, and one hundred dollars, to run thirty years, interest payable semi annually; and let these bonds be used only to pay off members of the Legislature their per diem and mileage, and the salaries of the officers of the Executive and Judiciary departments. A proviso could be inserted that those members and other officers who are not very sanguine of the validity and security of our bonds should not be required to receive them, but should receive their pay from the ordinary income from taxation.

The result of this plan would be that a large portion of the taxes now levied for current expenses, could be dispensed with, and the people be thus relieved of a burden they are so ill able to bear. Putting the sessions of the Legislature at five months in the year, and the daily expenses at four teen hundred dollars, (which we believe is the Standard's estimate) this plan would, in this one item, afford relief to the amount of two hundred and ten thousand dollars. To this add salaries of Executive and Judiciary departments, which, at a rough estimate we put at forty thousand dollars, and amount paid to the State printer, one hundred thousand dollars, and we have the grand aggregate of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The remission of this sum annually, would be indeed a "relief to the people" in their present impoverished condition, the only drawback being the interest they would have to pay on it, say, twenty one thousand dollars a year; but this would be better than paying three hundred and fifty thousand.

Any objection to such an increase of the public debt would not stand with the present Legislature at least; and, by and by, when we reach the top of that hill of prosperity, up the sides of which the Radical party is so laboriously dragging us, we shall be able to pay off these bonds and never feel it.

We propose, if the Legislature will adopt our plan, to cease our opposition to the State bonds, which the Standard says is so formidable, at least, so far as this class of bonds are concerned, and we will even go so far as to agree to republish Mr. Clingman's letter, the Governor's telegrams to New York in regard to the payment of interest on our State bonds, and keep standing the passage from the Governor's message which says "the interest on our special tax bonds is being paid."

PARTY DISCIPLINE.

On the reassembling of the Legislature for the present session, a number of Republican members, fresh from association with their constituents, showed a disposition to throw off the party shackles which bound them to every corrupt and extravagant measure at the dictation of the leaders, and were favorable to a liberal and honest course of legislation. This was manifest to all, and to none more than to the Republican leaders themselves; and hence the party lash was drawn, the Standard raised the warning and threatening voice, the caucus bands were tightened, and now the knees of many begin to shake and, in almost every instance, we see them giving way and

"Swearing they will ne'er consent, consenting."

We judge from the tone of the Standard of Friday, that the refractory element is pretty well subdued; that the impression made upon the minds of many by intercourse with their constituents, has been smothered. Threats, wheedlings and coaxings have had their effect, and henceforth, during the remainder of the session, we may look for a general Radical acquiescence in all the behests of the leaders, no matter how repugnant it may be to the better conviction of their judgments, or contrary to the known wishes of the intelligent portion of their constituencies.

It is refreshing to see, however, that there are a few, who having some present personal respect for themselves and the people, and some regard for the future, and for the welfare of the State, refuse to have the shackles again fastened upon them.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE.—A gentleman writing us, on business, from Davidson College, speaks of that popular Institution in a most encouraging manner. He says:

"I may say to you that our College is in a very flourishing condition. We have great reason to rejoice in having such a man among us as Prof. Charles Phillips, and we have reason to believe that our Board have acted with great wisdom in the election of Prof. Martin to the chair of chemistry, geology, &c. He is just the man to know what to do with the valuable mineralogical, geological and conchological cabinets lately purchased, and actually received by the College."

Mr. Malone, insisted that the Committee on Judiciary should be compelled to report upon his bill enforcing the attendance of witnesses upon investigating Committees, and giving such Committees certain powers, as they had been instructed to do so yesterday. Mr. Malone made a direct motion to that effect.

Mr. Ingram (Republican) favored the motion. He said he was sick and disgusted with attempts to clogg a fair and honest investigation into those boldly alleged frauds. He was fast being forced to believe these charges true, from these wretched and repeated attempts and resort to all sorts of tactics to stave off and finally defeat all efforts looking towards a full, thorough and real investigation into these black looking matters.

After some further debate Mr. Malone's motion was put to a vote and rejected.

Resolution concerning the claims of loyal citizens of this State against the United States for property destroyed or taken during the war; asking our Representatives in Congress to take steps in this matter, and asking that a Commission on Claims, may be convened to hold its session in this State, was next reached.

After a discussion Mr. Durham moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The yeas and nays being called the motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 32, nays 48.

Mr. Durham moved to strike out all the preamble down to the "1st Resolve." He had hoped this question of loyalty and disloyalty had been hushed up. The gentleman from Halifax, (Mr. Renfrow) had said that it was the habit of Confederate soldiers to steal everything that came in their way; he (Mr. Durham) branded the assertion as an infamous falsehood. He could respect an open Union soldier, but he had the utmost contempt for a crouching spaniel.

Mr. Renfrow disclaimed any intention of reflecting upon the army of the Confederacy.

After considerable debate the previous question being called and sustained, the question recurred upon Mr. Durham's amendment which was rejected by the following vote.

YEAS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Boddie, Davidson, Durham, Ellis, Ellington, Gatling, Gibson, Green, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Humphries, Kelley, of Davie, Malone, Moore, of Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Robinson, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Sweat, Thompson, Welch, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, and Williams, of Sampson—27.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Banner, Blair, Candler, Carson, Cawthorn, Clayton, Downing, Eagles, Forebee, Forkner, Franklin, French, Gahagan, Gilbert, Graham, Gunter Hendricks, Hilliard, Hinnant, Hodnig, Hoffman, Horney, Hudgings, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelley, of Moore, Kinney, Leary, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, McCanless, Mendenhall, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Pearson, Peck, Ragland, Rea, Renfrow, Robbins, Reynolds, Seymour, Siegrist, Smith, of Martin, Snipes, Stanton, Stevens, Sykes, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, White, Williamson, and Wilson—60.

The question was then taken upon Mr. Durham's other amendment to strike out wherever it occurred the word "loyal."

The yeas and nays being called the amendment was rejected by a vote of yeas 29, nays 59.

The resolution was then adopted by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Banner, Barnes, Bowman, Candler, Cawthorn, Clayton, Downing, Eagles, Ellington, Forebee, Forkner, Franklin, French, Gilbert, Graham, Green, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Hendricks, Hinnant, Hodgin, Hodnett, Hoffman, Horney, Humphries, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Leary, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Matheson, McCanless, Mendenhall, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Nicholson Pearson, Peck, Pou, Price, Ragland, Rea, Robbins, Reynolds, Seymour, Siegrist, Simonds, Smith, of Martin, Snipes, Stanton, Sweat, Sykes, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, White, Williamson and Wilson—63.

NAYS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Blair, Boddie, Carson, Durham, Gahagan, Gatling, Gibson, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Hudgings, Malone, Moore, of Alamance, Painter, Renfrow, Robinson, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Thompson, Welch, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, and Williams, of Sampson.

By Mr. Downing: A bill to amend the act chartering the Cheraw and Coalfield Railroad. Referred.

By Mr. Smith, of Martin: A bill to prevent the obstruction of the passage of fish up the Albemarle Sound and tributaries. Referred to a special Committee of five consiting of Messrs. Smith, of Martin, Humphries, Gatlin, Rea and Robbins.

By G. W. Price, col. a bill to amend the charter of the city of Wilmington. Referred.

On motion the House adjourned.

It is predicted that Florida will become one of the largest sugar producing localities on this continent. The character and soil are admirably adapted to its culture, and the crop is a sure one.

A number of Ohio clergymen protest against the dancing of the sexes together. Dancing, in itself, they do not object to. Men and women may dance as much as they like, but seperately. That, it seems to us, is Shakerism.

Every day we read of kerosene oil explosions, caused by the sheer carelessness of the persons handling that most inflammable liquid. It is inconceivable why people who are told daily of the danger of lighting fires by the aid of kerosene, or of filling kerosene lamps in the neighborhood of a flame, will not be deterred from running the fearful risks of doing these things. Care of the most ordinary character would prevent a large proportion of these kerosene accidents.

REMARKS OF

MR. JONES, OF MECKLENBURG,

Upon the Resolutions in the Senate, pledging the faith of the State to the payment of her debts.

MR. PRESIDENT:—I claim to be as much a North Carolinian, Sir, as those Senators who have so eloquently lectured us upon the subject of the "honor" and "fair fame" of North Carolina, and I hope, Sir, that I am as sensitive to all that concerns her reputation as any of them, and it is precisely, Sir, because I am so sensitive that I shall vote against these resolutions. Sir, they proclaim that North Carolina will forever regard, as inviolable, the debts she has heretofore contracted, and that she will meet these obligations to the last cent.—This, Sir, is the substance of these resolutions, and if they mean anything, they mean that this Legislature will not only hold as valid and constitutional all the bonds that have been issued by our Treasurer, but also that this Legislature will proceed, at once, to lay taxes sufficient to meet the interest on those bonds. Now, Sir, the question of the constitutionality of these bonds has long since passed into a purely judicial one, and this mighty host of bonds which this Legislature, at its last session, mustered into existance, has already commenced passing in review before the chief judicial tribunal of the State, and by the judgment of that tribunal they must stand or fall. Thus, Sir, so far as these resolutions assume to settle the question of the validity of these bonds they are simply absurd. But, Sir, when we regard them as a pledge on the part of this General Assembly to levy taxes sufficient to meet the interest on our entire indebtedness, I think it would be well for this body to pause and ascertain, if possible, what resources it has at its command wherewith to fulfill these oft repeated pledges. I, for one, am unwilling to pledge myself, in advance, to aid in levying taxes which may prove greater than the industrial intersts of the State can bear. Sir, we may as well look this question squarely in the face; there is such a thing as a State's being burdened with a debt greater than she can bear, and, Sir, of all the evils with which the Almighty curses the nations of the earth there are few greater than this. When an individual becomes insolvent he finds a refuge in the sheltering protection of a Court of Bankruptcy, but not so, sir, is it with an insolvent State. For it there is no refuge, no protection, no hope; a pall settles upon it, its spindles stop, its ploughs are staid in the furrow, the busy hum of stirring multitudes in its cities is hushed, its trains are crowded with its citizens with their faces turned to strange and distant lands, and its roads are marked with those moving caravans that tell that the hardy children of toil are fleeing from a blighted land. Upon such a State there rears, sir, the blackness of the shadow of death, and while I will never say that North Carolina will not pay her debts, I may have to recognize, with a heart brimfull of mortification, that you have saddled her with a debt which she can not bear without crushing the very life out of her, and that the taxes which you pledge yourselves by these resolutions to levy would paralyze the entire industrial interest of the State. When I recognise this condition of things, Mr. President, when I must determine between a failure to meet our obligations on the one hand and the imposing of a over burden of taxation upon this State upon the other, I shall, for one postpone the interest of the creditor to the interest of the State. I trust in God, Mr. President, that my apprehensions may be groundless, and that some measure may be devised which will save us from that calamity which Senators here call repudiation, but which is at last but an inability to pay liabilities inconsiderately and recklessly incurred, and I pledge myself here to day to the support of any measure which gives a ray of hope of escape from bankruptcy and repudiation. But, sir, I feel the full force of the difficulties that beset us, and I think that every Senator on this floor who has reflected upon the subject, must admit that they are serious if not appalling. We have yet to consider on this floor this very question of the State's finances; we have yet to find a solution of this problem, how we shall meet the liabilities of the State, and above all questions, we have to consider whether we can meet them at all. Let us determine this point before we repeat our promises. It is well enough for Senators to declaim about the reputation of the State and her honor, but all such declamation pre supposes that we can pay; the very question we have yet to consider. Is any Senator on this floor in possession of the necessary statistical information to enable him to say with confidence that two or even three per cent upon the taxable property of this State will raise sufficient revenue to redeem these proposed pledges? Sir I have upon my desk the report of the Public Treasurer, in which he states that the entire amount of the revenue raised during the past fiscal year, ($800,000) will be required to defray the ordinary expenses of the government; he admits that not one cent can be spared towards paying the interest on the old debt, and he admits inferentially too, that the special tax will not prove sufficient to pay the interest on the new bonds. The Auditor's report is also upon my desk, and I gather sir, from it, no information to guide me in this investigation. He states distinctly that he can form no correct idea of the amount of the taxable property of the State, while the Treasurer gives it as his opinion that the real estate tested by the tax assessment returned, will not exceed $90,000,000, a falling off of more than one third from its value as estimated on this floor when the present revenue law was framed. You were working in the dark when this law was framed, you are not more enlightened now, and still you promise and re-promise to pay this money. What if it should turn out that it required three per cent upon all the taxable property of the State to meet these pledges and supply the wants of the counties, will the Senators who support these resolutions vote that sum? Are they prepared to say now that they will do it? If not, let them not vote for these resolutions, for as I said before, as this Legislature cannot bind a future one by its resolutions, the resolutions under consideration, if they mean anything, mean that this Legislature will levy such a tax. But sir, it is by no means improbable that it will actually require three per cent upon all the taxable property in the State to pay the interest on the debt, the ordinary expenses of the government and county expenses. I think sir, that it will require that amount. The interest on $34,000,000, the amount of our debt as given by Gov Holden, is $2,040,000, the ordinary expenses of the Government $600,000 to which if we add $200,000 a year for three years for the completion of the Penitentiary and the funds necessary to defray the expenses of our charitable institutions, it will swell the aggregate to three millions of dollars for State purposes alone. Now if we estimate the taxable property of the State at $200,000,000 we see that it will require one and a half per cent of taxation to defray the State expenses alone, and as the counties will require fully as much more for county purposes, we have a burden of three per cent upon all the taxable property of the State. But sir it is by no means certain that the property of the State of all classes subject to taxation, will amount to $200,000,000, and in proportion as its amount is diminished, in the same proportion is the per cent increased, so that it may require even more than one and one half per cent for State purposes. Now Mr. President the problem is, what amount of taxation can our industrial interests bear? I do not believe they can bear three per cent, I do not believe they can live under such a burden. Sir, I have not examined the statistics, but I hazard the assertion that North Carolina has never doubled her capital in any thirty three years of her existence. Then sir as a matter of course the nett profit on her capital and labor has been less than three per cent. Here then sir we have a burden of taxation that consumes the entire nett profit of her capital and labor. Is not this fact appalling? But is it not more appalling when we come to reflect that two millions of this money is to be annually carried beyond the limits of the State to pay the interests on our bonds in Wall Street. So long Sir, as the money raised by taxation is paid to domestic creditors the State is not impoverished, though individual interests may be destroyed, and productive labor paralyzed, but when a State is not only paying grievous taxes, but is paying them by way of tribute to a foreign State, her condition is in the last degree lamentable and she is in the condition of a Roman province or of poor, unfortunate Ireland, the chief of whose woes it is that her non-resident landlords carry beyond her borders the profit of her labor. Sir, the Senator from Craven has stated that he bases his hope of paying our indebtedness upon the prospective prosperity of the State, in the next thirty years. I wish, sir, that I could participate in his bright anticipations, but the prosperity of a State, burdened as ours is, would be in my opinion, but little less than a miracle; the very difficulties I have enumerated must inevitably retard her progress. But the Senator reminds me that the State of Illinois has paid taxes nearly equal to those now necessary for North Carolina. I say in reply to him, Mr. President, that he cannot estimate the ability of North Carolina, to bear taxation by refering to those young States that double and quadruple their capital within the space of a very few years, where lands are appreciating with marvelous rapidity and into which labor and capital are ever pouring in an unbroken stream. Such a State has a bouyancy which nothing can repress, while a State crippled as ours is has but a spark of her former vitality and a spark which must be carefully nursed or it will be forever extinguished. But Mr President, I have not refered to the taxation necessary to raise the sinking fund which is required by the Constitution to be levied, neither have I referred to the tribute which we pay annually to the General Government, and yet I trust I have said enough to convince Senators, that this question of our finances is one not lightly to be considered and that there are difficulties connected with it which it would be well to settle before we tickle the ears of our creditors with more renewals of our promises to pay. I do not desire nor advocate repudiation, Mr. President, and I trust in God, that we may be able to meet our obligations to the last farthing, but if we cannot meet these them, let them be as few as possible, let us not unnecessarily multiply them, and let us not add to the humiliation of bankruptcy, the baseness of having wilfully or recklessly held out these renewed hopes to the world, hopes which may be realized but which may prove fallacious.

Let us address ourselves, Mr. President, to the task of solving this financial problem, and when we have done so, let us frankly announce the result to the world. If we can pay let us say to our creditors we have laid the necessary tax to meet your claims, if we cannot pay then let us frankly admit it. Such a course were worthier than to repeat a promise while doubtful of our ability to fulfill it.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1869.

Gen. Thos. S. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

The Ladies Fair at Tucker Hall closed on Thursday night. The sum realized will, perhaps, be about sufficient to accomplish the object for which the Fair was gotten up, that of furnishing the Methodist parsonage with articles of furniture in which it was deficient. The occasion was a pleasant one, and we congratulate the ladies upon the measure of success that crowned their efforts.

United States Circuit Court.—Friday, Dec, 3rd. 1869.—The Court convened at 10, 15 A. M. U. S. v. Rufus Mangum, continued for the defendant, on upon affidavit. U. S. v. Calvin O. Bryant. Indictment: Illegal Distilling, District Attorney, for the Government; L. P. Olds, for the defendant. During the argument in this case, the pleasantries of counsel gave rise to considerable amusement. The defendant was convicted, and fined $25. U. S. v. William S. Robinson, Indictment; Retailing spirituous liquors without license. District Attorney, for the Government; McKay and McAuley, for the defendant. The greater portion of the day was taken up in this trial, which resulted in a verdict of not guilty.

The Court adjourned till Saturday at 10 A. M.

Supreme Court.—This high tribunal will sit next until the 4th of January, 1870, for the Winter term. We don't regret the change, having already the United States District Court, the General Assembly and the Grand Lodge, all in December, we can dispense with the other blessing for a time.

Grand Lodge.—This honorable body of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons will convene in this City on Monday. They will hold their sessions with closed doors, and the outside world will not be posted in regard to all the important business they may transact. Nevertheless, being of the number of the initiated, we shall endeavor to give reports of such things as are proper to be written during the session, which will probably not last several days.

Congress will meet on Monday next. We expect to give the message on Tuesday morning.

Enlarged and Improved.—The Western Sentinel, published at Winston, N. C, entered upon its fourteenth volume with the present week's issue, on which occasion it comes out enlarged and improved. The Sentinel is a faithful advocate of the interests of the State and a good newspaper, and deserves the patronage and prosperity it seems to be receiving.

Warrenton Female College.—We have received a circular of this flourishing Institution. It has been in operation but one session under the Presidency of Rev. T. M. Jones, who took charge of and opened it last August under circumstances that admitted of but very limited previous notice; notwithstanding which, the attendance was very good—there being over sixty boarding pupils—and the session was in all respects, a pleasant and successful one. There is abundant reason to believe the attendance next session will be much larger than during the one now about closing, but the accommodations are sufficient for a very large number.

Of Rev. Mr. Jones as an educator it is unnecessary to speak—his name is a tower of strength to any institution of learning with which he may be connected; and the simple announcement that the boarding department is under the immediate supervision of his excellent lady is a sufficient guarantee of the comfort and care of the pupils.

The Music department under the charge of Prof. Hahr, who is a gentleman of superior attainments and large experience, gives to this College in that particular branch advantages excelled by no institution in the South.

The Demand Tells The Story.—From all directions orders for PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR come pouring in. All the noxious Dyes &c, go down before it. A year hence they will be unmarketable. The ladies say it is as pleasant to use as a perfumed toilet water, and it is as transparent as crystal. Nothing else reproduces so perfectly the original hue of the hair.

Notes for December, addressed to the Feeble and Debilitated.

This is a trying season for invalids, indeed for all who are not blessed with robust constitutions and iron frames.

Cold has come upon us suddenly, sealing up the open pores, and sealing in as it were, any seeds of disease that may have been lurking in the system, but which remained undeveloped so long as the waste matter of the body and all acid and unwholesome humors were freely discharged by evaporation from the surface and through the bowels.

A tonic, aperient and alterative medicine is now needed to invigorate the vital powers depressed by a low temperature; to stimulate and purify the secretions, and to fit the body to endure, without inconvenience, pain or danger, the sudden climatic change which ushers in the Winter.

The only preparation which will fully meet this almost universal need, and will thoroughly and safely perform the important work, is the leading tonic and alterative of the age, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

This popular specific improves the appetite, invigorates the digestive organs, regulates the flow of bile, enriches the blood, calms the nerves, relieves constipation, promotes superficial circulation and evaporation, and being composed solely of wholesome vegetable elements, with a pure stimulant as their diffusive vehicle, may be taken by the weakest without fear. The flavor is agreeable, for although the BITTERS are a patent medicine, they contain no nauseating element.

Judgment Suspended.—Yesterday in the Superior Court judgment was suspended in the case of the State vs. Charles Rea. Rea, a negro boy, it will be remembered, was tried last week for an all-god assault with intent to commit rape upon Elizabeth Petty, and was found guilty by the Jury but recommended by them to the mercy of the Court. This recommendation was in consequence of the peculiar circumstances surrounding the case, and, as far as we are informed, no one believes that the ends of justice have been defeated by his release which was ordered yesterday.—Char. Observer.

ABSTRACT OF THE OPINION OF HIS HONOR, JUDGE BROOKS, IN THE CASE OF THE "CUBA."

The question submitted to the Court is: Can this Court recognize as existing any government or organized body of people, or element known as the republic of Cuba, to the extent of allowing it, as a body politic or government, to come through an agent into Court, and be admitted as claimant of the property libelled in this cause?

The capacity of this element to hold property not under consideration; the question simply to what extent (if any) the Court can go, in declaring how far any revolutionary element or people have succeeded in separating themselves from any established and recognized government.

The able argument of counsel have aided the Court in coming to its conclusion, yet the importance of the question is felt to be embarrassing; and the more so, because the Court is not satisfied that its action can be reviewed to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Phelps, who submitted the argument upon the part of the government, contended: That the Court would exceed its power in recognizing to any extent the revolutionary body styling itself the "Republic of Cuba;" in the absence of any legislative or executive recognition; that no such power is allowed the Court; that a power or government must be recognized to have existence before it can be admitted to claim or defend. From an examination of the authorities, and a careful consideration of the arguments upon both sides, the Court is forced to the conclusion that the question is with the United States.

This opinion given with hesitancy, because it may seem as if a recognition of the right of the strong to deny justice to the weak. But the Courts can not consider any question of law in a policy view. They must construe the law as it is, not as it should be.

The cases cited and commented upon by the counsel for the Government, though not exactly parallel, conclusively settle this question.

First: U. S. vs. Palmer, 1 Wheat, 610 Mr. Chief Justice Marshall, delivering the opinion of the Court, says: "Those questions which respect the rights of a part of a foreign umpire, asserting and contending for its independence, and the conduct which the Courts of the Union must observe to them, are equally difficult and delicate.

* * * * * * *

Such questions are political, rather than legal in their character, and belong to those who can declare what the law shall be, and who can place the nation in such a position toward foreign powers as to their judgment may seem wise. * *. The proceedings in Courts must depend on the course of the governments, where a civil war rages in any country, and one part of which separates itself from the old established government and erects itself into a distinct government, the Court must view such government as it is viewed by the Legislative and Executive departments of the government of the United States."

His Honor cited and commented upon the Divina Pastora, 4 Wheat. 52, Kennett vs Chambers, 14 How. 38, Clarke vs. United States, 3 Wash. C. C. R. 101. In Luther vs. Borden, the Court declares that the Federal Courts have no jurisdiction of the question whether a government organized in a State is the duly constituted government in that State. Such power ought not to be vested in the Courts; the action of a single Judge might involve the country in a war.

The Court knows of no act or resolution of Congress, or proclamation of the Executive, indicating an intention of recognizing the existence of the Cuban Republic, and the Court cannot know of the existence of such a government. Such knowledge is essential to the admission of this agent as claimant for his government.

OBITUARY.

Died November 13th 1869, in the 29th year of her age at the residence of her husband Dr. T. S. Vickers, Durham, N. C., Mrs. Sarah M. Vickers, daughter of Wm. J. and Sallie Duke.

As a daughter, wife, sister and neighbor, she was beloved. She had been taught to remember her Creator in the days of her youth, and early in life embraced the religion of Jesus and connected herself with the Methodist E Church South, in whose communion she lived till called to join the Church on high. Her death was sudden, but she was conscious of her state, and met the "king of terrors" with triumphant victory, exhorting her friends to meet her in Heaven.

DR. LAWRENCE'S

Highly Concentrated Compound

FLUID EXTRACT OF

Koskoo!

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER!

NOT A SECRET QUACK MEDICINE—FORMULA AROUND THE BOTTLE.

Prepared Solely by

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.

ORGANIC CHEMIST,

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits! See that Dr. J. J. Lawrence, Chemist, Norfolk, Va., and the word KOSKOO, is BLOWN ON THE GLASS of each bottle. ☜

Koskoo is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere. Read the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing in the Old North State:

Rocky Mount, Edgecombe Co., Sept. 18, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: I have used your Concentrated Fluid Extract of Koskoo in my practice with the happiest results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Invigorative Blood Purifier and Nervous Tonic. In all diseases of the Liver, Scrofulous Syphilitic, Nervous Affections, it is a remedy of immense value: in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the success which you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicines, I am, sir, with much respect, your obedient servant, R. C. TILLERY, M. D.

From Dr. Fentress, an accomplished and experienced physician.

Princess Anne Court House, Va., Sept. 13, 1869.

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.—Dear Sir: I have carefully examined the formula, as well as the Therapeutic properties of your Koskoo compound, and have prescribed it in some stubborn cases of Chronic Liver Affections Dyspepsia, General Debility, &c., and always with the most gratifying results. I find it to be a splendid Tonic Alterative, and Hepatic combination, accomplishing its constitutional effects without the slightest debility; in fact it gives fine support to the General system while Restorative effects are being produced. I cheerfully recommend its use to the public. Yours, truly, T. F. FENTRESS, M. D.

Koskoo cures SCROFULA IN ITS WORST FORMS. From Mr. A. W. Mills, a prominent and well known merchant of Norfolk, Va.:

No. 11, Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1869.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Your Koskoo has worked wonders in my family. My daughter has been a sufferer from Scrofula since childhood. She lost thirty-one pieces of bone from her ankle, several from her arm, besides having ulcers in several parts of the body. Whilst in this condition she commenced taking your Koskoo—IT ACTED LIKE A CHARM ON HER—UNDER ITS USE THE ULCERS GRADUALLY HEALED, AND HER GENERAL HEALTH GREATLY IMPROVED. It certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Koskoo a SPECIFIC for all scrofulous affections. Your Koskoo also cured my wife of dyspepsia, from which she suffered greatly. SHE IS NOW IN BETTER HEALTH THAN SHE HAS BEEN IN FIVE YEARS.

With the highest regards, I am gratefully yours, &c., A. W. MILLS.

KOSKOO, THE GREAT INVIGORATOR.—Read the following from the Rev. Joseph E. Martin, pastor of Wesley Chapel, Portsmouth, Va.:

"This is to certify that myself and wife have used Dr. Lawrence's Koskoo, and can testify to its beneficial effects. Previous to taking it we were in a condition of debility—had no appetite, and suffered from sudden and often violent attacks of headache and nervousness. Two bottles of Koskoo has improved our general health, and we regard it as invaluable, and most cheerfully recommend it to all who have need of an invigorator. Yours, &c., JOSEPH E. MARTIN.

From Mr. Womble, a prominent hardware merchant of Norfolk:

No. 13 MARKET SQUARE, Norfolk, Va., Oct. 23, 1869.

DR. LAWRENCE.—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Koskoo, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of KOSKOO RESTORED ME TO HEALTH. Yours, truly, J. G. WOMBLE.

From Rev. W. H. Christian, Pastor Dinwiddie Street Methodist Church:

PORTSMOUTH, Va., October 25, 1869.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Lawrence well. He is a gentleman of cultivation, and worthy the fullest confidence. I have used his "Koskoo" with advantage to myself, and have adopted its use in my family in cases of nervous debility and depression. W. H. CRISTIAN.

KOSKOO!

CURES CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

Norfolk, Virginia, September 7, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: My son has received so much benefit from your wonderful Koskoo that I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude. I had tried almost everything without benefit. I believe, in all sincerity, that your Koskoo IS AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for the disease from which he has suffered, and, so far as I can learn, has never failed. If you only know the immense amount of suffering that he has undergone, then you could conceive the value of such a remedy as Koskoo—THAT SURELY CURES. The great amount of good it is now doing among us is inestimable.

With much gratitude, I am respectfully yours, &c., MRS M. E. A. NELSON.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: Having been treated by several skilful physicians for Dyspepsia, Chronic Disease of Kidneys, General Debility, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Koskoo, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored

I am, sir, with much respect your obedient servant, O. B. MEARS. No. 5 Market St., Norfolk, Va., July 6, 1869.

Pacific, Franklin Co., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Koskoo; I took the medicine about one month, and I was completely cured and have remained well. I know of several cures made by Koskoo, and can cordially recommend it as a good medicine. JOHN H. BAKER.

DR LAWRENCE.—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Koskoo, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of KOSKOO RESTORED ME TO HEALTH. Yours, truly, J. G. WOMBLE.

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power; wholly all friction to overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this

THE [illegible]ES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS. H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits. Address T. H. BRIGGS Sept 10-tf Raleigh.

Amount of Assets $12,000,000.00.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $2,675,999.48,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

ALL THE SURPLUS OF THE COMPANY DIVIDED AMONG THE ASSURED.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED AND PAID ANNUALLY ON THE CONTRIBUTION PLAN.

ALL POLICIES (AFTER TWO FULL PAYMENTS) NON-FORFEITABLE, AND SO EXPRESSED ON EACH POLICY.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States.

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

IT ISSUES ALL THE VARIOUS FORMS OF LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

"	22,201	15,00

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,34
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Assets to Liabilities is large. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861 it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
